These Terms & Conditions govern your use of stphilipmedicalclinic.com, our online appointment request form, and our text message program. By using this website or participating in our messaging program, you agree to these terms.

This website does not provide medical advice. Content on this site is general information only and is not a substitute for diagnosis or treatment by a qualified provider. Using this website does not create a physician-patient relationship. If you are having a medical emergency, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency room. Using this website

You may use this site for lawful purposes only. You agree not to interfere with its operation, attempt to gain unauthorized access to any part of it, use automated tools to collect data from it, or submit false or misleading information.

Appointment requests

Submitting the online appointment form is a request, not a confirmed appointment. We will contact you to verify provider availability and confirm the date and time. An appointment is scheduled only once our office confirms it with you directly.

Please submit only the information the form asks for. Do not send detailed medical history, test results, images, or payment card numbers through this website.

You are responsible for providing accurate contact information and for telling us if your phone number, address, or insurance details change.

Missed appointments and cancellations

[Describe the clinic's cancellation and no-show policy here — for example: We ask that you give at least 24 hours' notice if you need to cancel or reschedule. A fee may apply for appointments missed without notice. Contact the office for details.]

Text messages

Participation in our text message program is voluntary and is governed by our Text Message Terms, which form part of these terms. Message and data rates may apply. Standard text messaging is not a secure or encrypted channel. Message delivery depends on your mobile carrier and is not guaranteed, so please do not rely solely on a text reminder to know when your appointment is. You may cancel at any time by replying STOP, with no effect on your care.

Insurance and payment

Information on this website about accepted insurance plans and services is provided for convenience and may change. Please confirm coverage with your health plan and with our office before your visit. You are responsible for charges not covered by your plan.
